

DEEP LISTENING

Can I listen to God -as a vulnerable being?

Can I open up myself to God as a fragile and weak human?

Can I listen to the "Vulnerable God" who talks to me from...

The Cross

The Nature & Myths

The Poverty

The Sickness

The Prisoners

The Widows and Orphans

The Marginalized and Indigenous

The Wounded and broken humanity

What is blocking me to do that?

If humanity learns once again to listen

With love, compassion, respect, kindness and honesty...

We may avoid many wars. Yes, true!

We all have become a "social chatter"

Influenced by social medias & personal medias

Listening requires deep inner security, strength, and connection to oneself,

listening has to do with "core being in -encounter",

Deep listening is open, respectful and empathetic, caring and non-threatening.

Listening to the sound of the running rivers calms us

Listening to the sea waves refreshes our spirit

Listening to the singing birds brings us joy

Listening to the silence of the night renews us

Listening to the winds purifies us

Listening to our own hearts gives us orientation and purpose in life.

Listening to the "listening spirit" brings us lot of self-awareness.

Self-awareness is the seed of change

Change is the road map for growth

Growth is the permanent way for Full-Realization of

Who We ARE- The interconnectedness of everything.

So, my beloved, let us listen!

L- Limited words

I – Intentional
